„Additional Hands!“

ClampMan

Innovative Holding Fixture for Printed Circuit Boards

Didn't you often wish to have at least two additional hands to hold PCBs or electronic modules for the process of measurement, test, soldering or documentary pictures with a thermal camera? ClampMan is the perfect solution.

- Flexible design, use to hold various shapes and formats of PCBs in a high variety of different ways.
- Designed to also clamp energized PCBs for safe measurements from both sides.
- Just like „additional hands“: Enables the fixing of PCBs in many different positions with multiple degrees of freedom.
- High quality, rugged design with hydraulic joint stands and precise fixture.
- Expand with additional fixtures according to your application.
